Nineteen Seventy

GROUND BREAKING 1970

After waiting for what seemed like an eternity, the new Thornton Community College campus got its first break. After three years of careful planning, the TCC dignitaries got down to earth. With shovels in hand, they were evidently digging the idea of a new campus. After turning over their spades of earth, they posed for photographs and returned to the Thornton Township hall for the bulk of the festivities.

There was a small reception after the program where a small model of the new campus was shown by the architects Fitch, Larocca, Carrington, and Jones. Completion is expected in the fall of 1972.

Moratorium

"Fighting For Peace is Like Fornicating For Virginitiy"

Jim Skilbeck

The jailing of the "Conspiracy Seven" on contempt charges lead to many outbreaks of violence throughout the country. In Chicago a group of young people gathered in front of the Federal Building to show their disapproval of the action taken by Judge Hoffman. Also present were those who thought that justice had been served, and were there to show their support and to negate the presence of the protesters. The extent to which either of the groups got its message across is up to who you talk to, or to whom you listen.

HOMECOMING:

"Autumn Magic"

What is a Homecoming without a bonfire, cheering the football team on with cheers led by the cheerleaders, the football team being introduced by Coach Ed Bonczyk and the preverbal dummy being thrown into the blazing fire.

The Homecoming festivities lacked nothing this year at TCC. In fact they gained something new as for the first time in TCC history a black King and Queen were named to preside over the weekend activities.

William Jones and Mattie Gordon were named King and Queen at the semi-formal dance held at the Chicago Water Tower Hyatt House, with the crowning of the king and queen highlighting the dance.

SLEIGHBELL BALL

"December Dream"

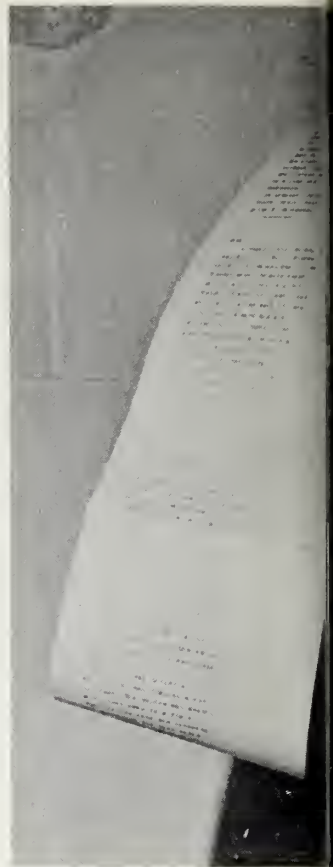

On December 19, the Men's club of Thornton Community College held their annual Sleighbell Ball. This year's festivities were held at the Riviera Room in Orland Park. The evening began with a buffet dinner followed by dancing to the music of the "Business As Usual."

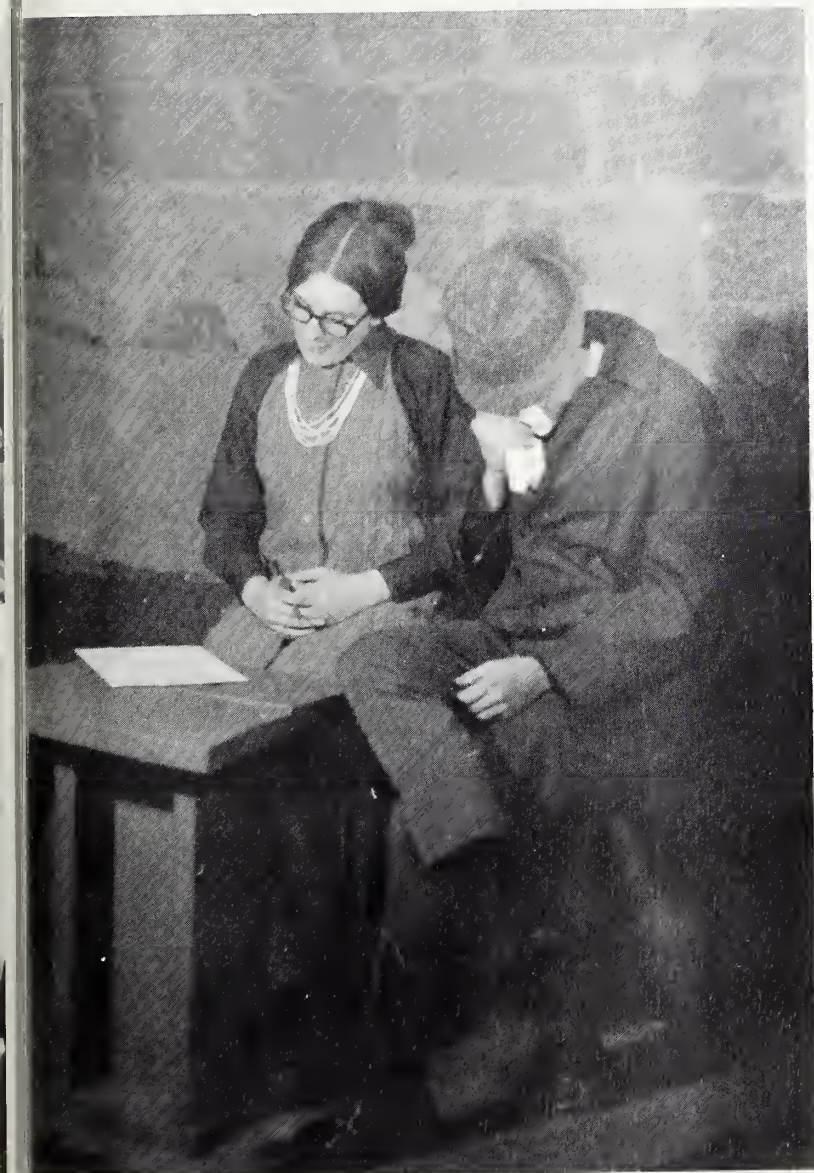

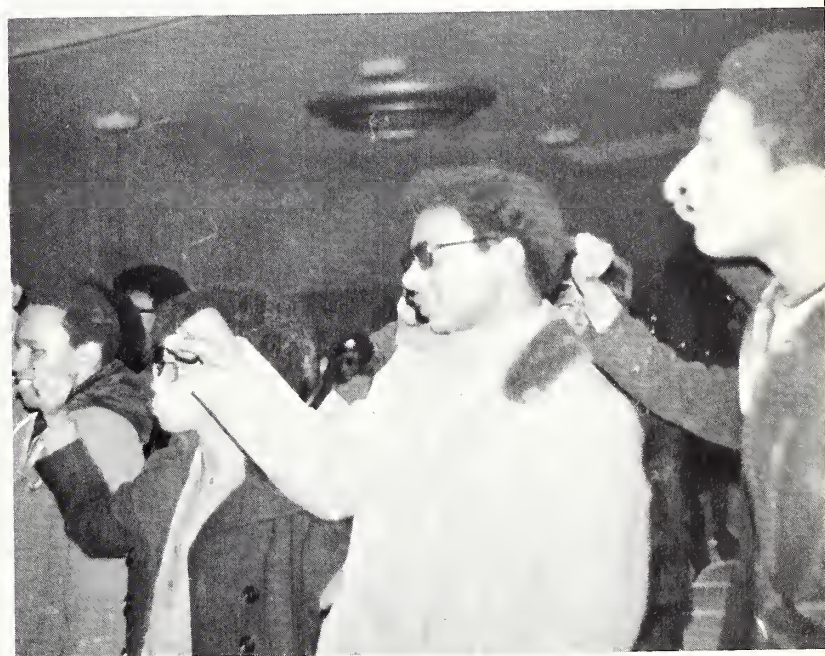

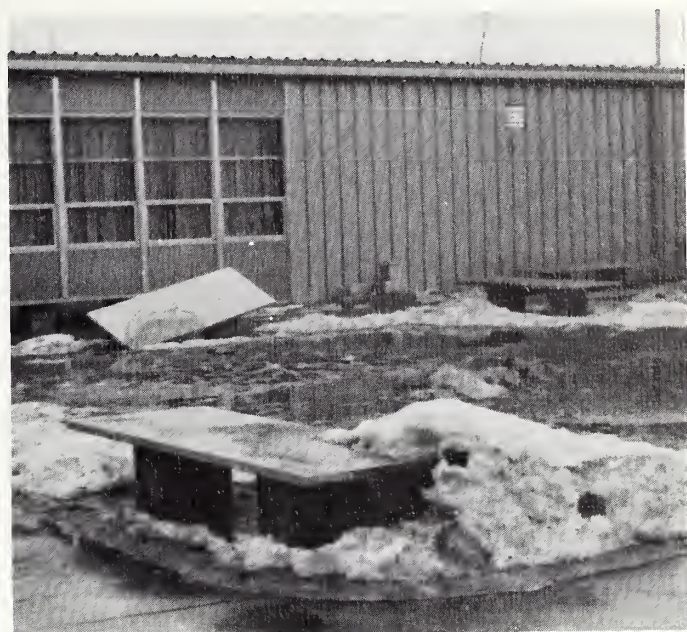

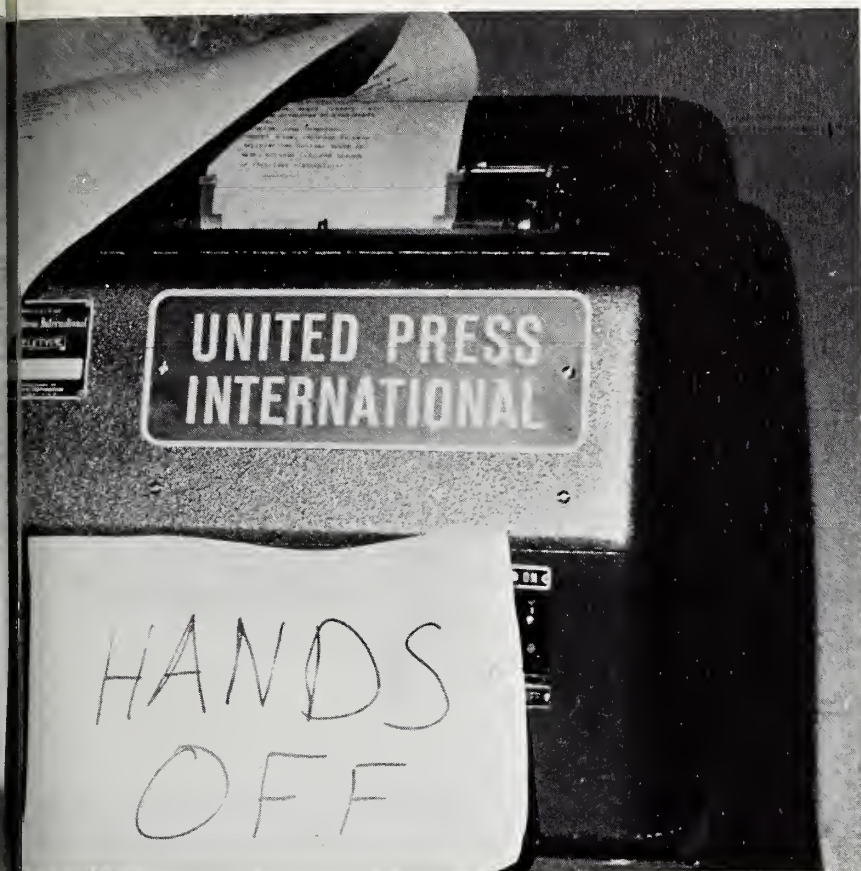

The high point of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen of Sleighbell. Rose Palenik from Chi Omicron sorority was elected Queen and Bill Haracz from Delta Tau fraternity was elected King.

STYLES

"Unfortunately, adult America seems increasingly baffled by its young—by their hair styles, their clothing, their loud music, their willingness to take grievances into the streets, their refusal to be wedged into social roles they don't believe in."

U.S. Senator George McGovern

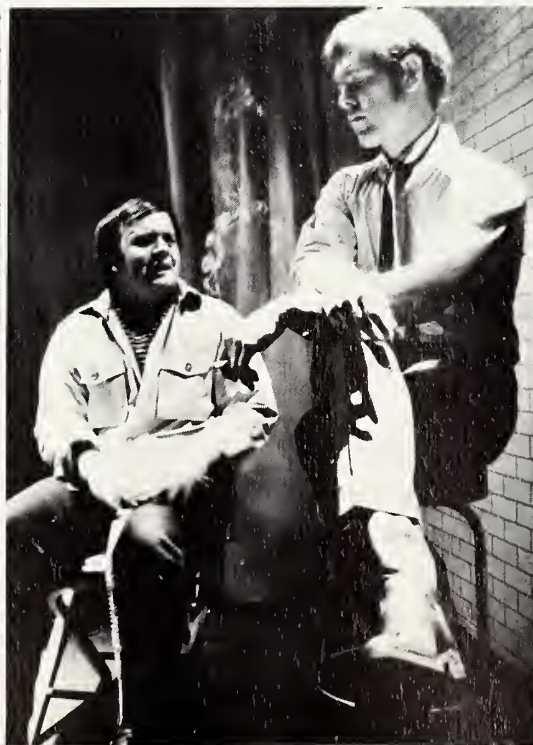

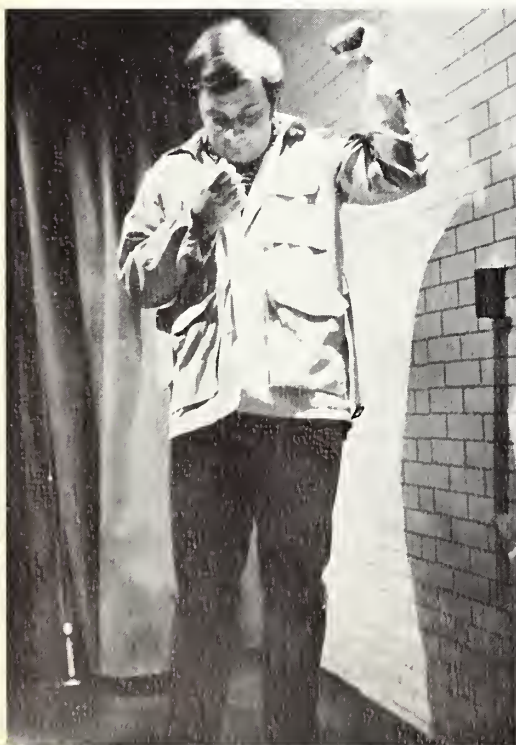

Skilbeck a_nd Gang

Early in the month of December or late in November, we can't remember which it was, a group of JC students, Jim Skilbeck, Ron DeYoung and Jerry McGee to be precise, were accompanied by an ex. JC student Tom Mosgers and one Morgan Park H.S. girl Pat Howard to The Lamp, a small coffeehouse, for an evening of revelry.

The evening consisted of a satirical review of the institutions in our American society today. One of the funniest and possibly the one that hit home the most is pictured above. The picture shows several people beating up on Jerry McGee because he refused to stand for the National Anthem. Kind of gets you right there, doesn't it?

"Between numbers Josh would just talk with the audience getting to know them, and letting them know he was there to have fun. At one point he even bummed a smoke from a guy in the front row."

Art, in any form, exemplifies the characteristics of a nation and of its people. Black art, by extension, represents the thoughts and feelings of the Black American; and the black arts festival at Thornton Community College exemplifies the years of black culture long hidden behind the bonds of slavery.

A week of black music, painting exhibits, and literature served to, it is hoped, narrow the gulf between the races. Throughout history, art has been the pictorial chronicler of the ages. It has told a story that has to be told, describing the joys and sorrows, the pain and suffering and the happiness of a people. So did the black students attempt to bring to life a history that was thought only to exist behind many miles of steel links, and beyond the length of a whip. Even more, though, the Black Arts Festival was an attempt to breach a wide sea of misunderstanding and ignorance. It is sincerely hoped that that sea has in part, been crossed, by the presentation of the Festival.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

SGA is clinically listed in the "big black book" on the third floor, as a student organization for the running of the student body. They are the policy making body for the students and more importantly(?) they dole out the money to the clubs for their various and assundrie activities.

However it was noticed that during the first semester there was very little accomplished by this organization. The lack of activity was due mainly to a lack of interest on the part of the elected student representatives. This lack of interest was duely noted by the student newspaper and they tried, with little effect, to get them motivated.

It became apparent that something had to be done, but what? With the convening of the second semester the solution presented itself.

Ramon Lehmen, then presiding as president, resigned his post. Several members of SGA followed suit, thus creating vacancies that had to be filled.

Bill Wilcox was elected temporarily to the post of president but the other vacancies had to be filled before SGA could function properly. An election was held and something amazing happened. There was some assemblance of interest generated and some people were actually talking over who they were going to vote for. Bill Wilcox was elected president (see picture at left) along with several very qualified members of the student body. What was needed was a strong leader, but more important a group of students that were interested in what they were supposed to be doing.

The freshmen at Thornton saw SGA at its low point. It is hoped that SGA will never again fall into the void it was at the first semester. As a recent editorial in The Courier stated, "The future looks good—don't blow it."

"The Face of Maturity?"

GAD

In the beginning, TCC was created; the school was waste and void; darkness covered the student center, until the spirit of GAD was stirring above the campus.

GAD said, "Let there be light," and there was the Homecoming Bonfire. Then Gad said, "Let the earth bring forth hot dogs." And it was; TCC was deluged with hot dogs.

Then Gad proclaimed, "Let us help mankind by increasing student's interest in all phases of school orientated activities. Let us work as a booster club to promote, publicize, assist, and attend, to the best of our ability, all functions associated with Thornton Community College. By increasing participation of all students in school activities, we will be living proof that Gad Gives A Damn. Thus students have set out to promote and provide school activities. GAD saw this, and pronounced it good. At the end of the creation GAD gathered its creatures and said, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the student center and bring forth empathy and life." And so it was . . .

CHEERLEADERS

CENTER — Linda McConnel, Angie Zuber, captain. FRONT — Linda Clark.

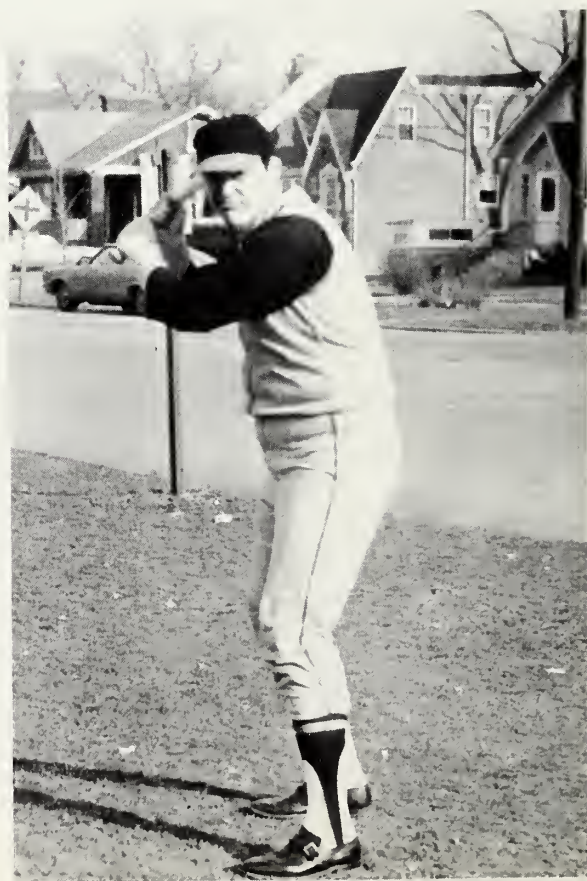

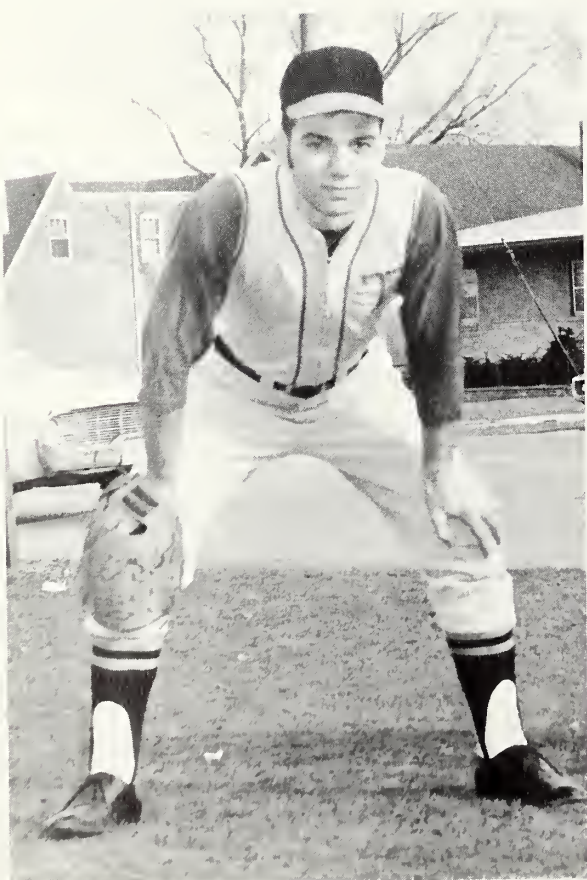

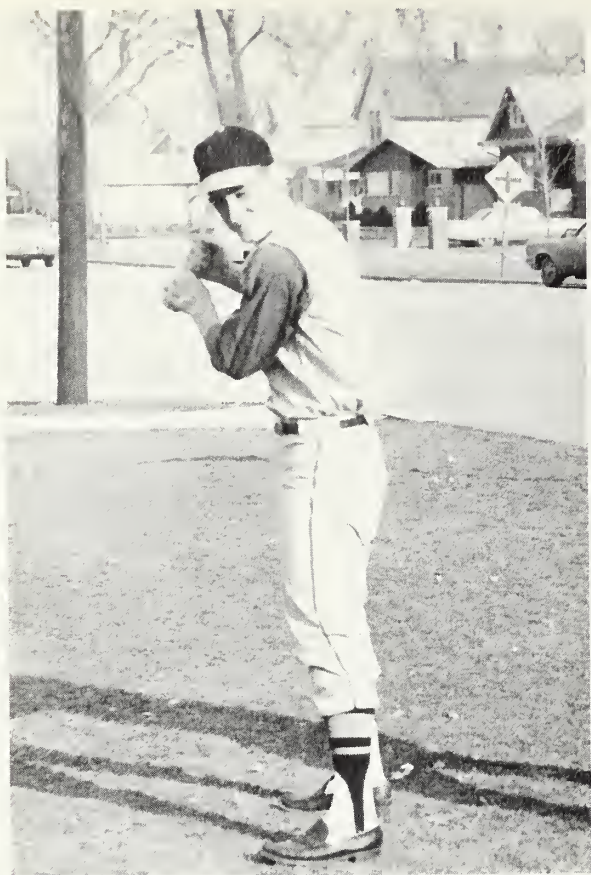

One of the most taken for granted organizations on campus is the cheerleaders. Everyone expects these girls to turn out for all the sports activities although, there may be only a meager amount of students present to help cheer the team on. These girls take the time out to care what happens to our athletic teams. They deserve much more recognition than they get, but what can be said except; thank you for a job well done.

TO THE STUDENTS OF THORNTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The young adults of college age today face a future filled with more challenges than possibly any other generation before. The many changes developed by our highly complex technological advancements have been made more rapidly than our adjustment to them. Society today is faced with a long list of problems ranging from pollution of our natural resources, over-population of the world, the threat of nuclear wars, to social injustices. The students are keenly aware of the problems and challenges of the age; I am proud that you are. I have a firm conviction that the youth of today will help solve the problems of today — not only help solve them but in the process, create a much better world.

I have experienced much personal satisfaction and many pleasures during my years of association with the college. Since I became dean of the college in 1957, we have experienced a soaring enrollment, expansion of temporary facilities, and broader educational offerings bringing new dimensions to the lives of the students who have attended the college. The intention of the college has always been to provide opportunities as comprehensive as circumstances will permit and with our new campus facilities now under construction, the realization of our plans and hopes are coming true. You, as students of the college, have helped to create and have shared in the growth and progress of Thornton Community College, and I feel that the college warrants your continued interest and support in maintaining its position in the higher education system.

I have chosen to retire this summer. Retirement may seem a very permanent term to you, but perhaps after a period of rest, travel, and relocation in a milder climate, I may return to what has always been my "first love" — that of classroom teaching. In the past several years of administrative responsibilities I have missed the close association I had with students in the classroom and in other activities of the college.

I am pleased and proud that the students at Thornton Community College have developed a high standard of achievement and that they take interest in their fellow man as well as in the scholastic aspect of college life. Thornton Community College will continue to be a large part of my life, wherever I am. I hope that my small part of its history contributed as it continues to develop as one of the best community colleges in the nation.

Frederic W. Ring

Within the past year three men who helped to form this institution passed away. Herbert Griener was Chairman of the Board of Trustees until his death in 1969. James Beck was dean of Instruction from 1929 to 1957. With his retirement in 1957 Lee Dulgarr took over his duties until his being named as the President of the College. Frederic Ring was Chairman of the Chemistry department and a very able teacher for many years. The loss of these men will be felt by many.

PROGRESS

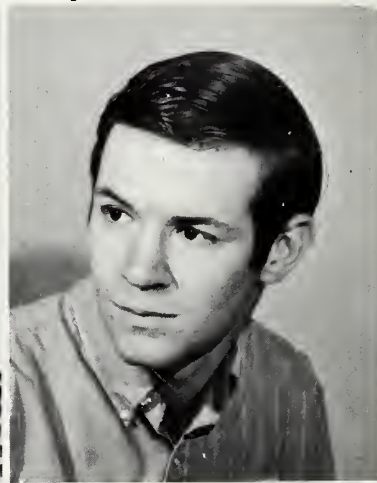

To those of you who say that this photograph was staged and that no real brew was involved, you are grossly mistaken. To those of you who are saying that we probably poured the brew down the sink, you are again mistaken. To those of you who are wondering if we finished at this point for lack of fortitude to continue, patience as all will be revealed later.
